NUMBER 22

Mass Meeting at Court House.

Last Sunday evening there was an informal mass meeting at the court-house to take steps to raise relief funds for the storm and flood sufferers. The court auditorium was full of people and they were there for the purpose of giving.

After stirring talks by Rev. J. H. Chandler and Eld. Z. T. Williams a collection was taken and $102.72 raised. The money will be sent to the Red Cross Society to be placed where the need is the greatest.

This town never fails to respond when a calamity comes. Some years ago when parts of China were flooded, drowning thousands of people, Columbia sent one hundred dollars.

For Sale.

Farms in Taylor and adjoining counties. Also nice residence property in Campbellsville. See the N. W. Miller Real Estate Agency before buying. Office in the Wood Bldg.

Sunday Services.

Last Sunday being the fifth Sabbath it was not a regular day for any one of the local pastors. However there was preaching at the Christian church and at the Methodist church. Eld. Mont Gabbert filled the pulpit at the former church, preaching a very entertaining discourse. The song service was of special interest.

Rev. J. H. Chandler, the regular pastor, delivered a strong sermon at the Methodist church, his subject being; "Giving to the Lord." The discourse was pointed throughout. Every money grasper in this community should have heard it.

I keep on hands a full stock of coffins and caskets, also robes; hearses. Prompt service night or day. Phone 29.

Mrs. J. W. Tupman.

Born to the wife of Oliver Willis March 27th, a daughter.

Held Over.

Last Monday night week Press Miller's grocery store in this place was broken into, as was reported in our last issue, and a lot of money stolen from the cash drawer. Tuesday morning suspicion rested upon a Charley Boone Miller and John Lee Cooper, both colored. Sheriff A. D. Patteson questioned Miller closely and he confessed to knowing of the robbery, stating that the Cooper boy went into the store, got the money and gave him a part of it to keep quiet. Cooper was then arrested, and last Wednesday afternoon he was given an examining trial. He was held to await the action of the grand jury, his bond being fixed at two hundred dollars.

Important Notice.

I have placed my stallion, Black Chief, No. 3806, under the care of Ike Sullivan, who resides near Gresham, Green county, Ky., where he will do service. Black Chief is, beyond doubt, the greatest stallion ever produced in this section of Kentucky, being from one of the most popular families yet known both on sire's and dam's side. He has for his sire the champion Montgomery Chief, 1361, by Bourbon Chief, 967, by Harrison Chief, 1906, by Clark Chief. Ball Chief's first dam, Louise Cabell, 5900, by Red Squirrel, 53, second dam by Juella G., by Jewel Denmark, 90, third dam Dew Drop, by Artist, 75, fourth dam by Cabell's Lexington. Ball Chief is four years old, a red chestnut with prominent star in face, left pastern white. He is scant 16 hands high with plenty of substance and as much style, finish and action as any living horse. He is a show horse of the highest type as he has thoroughly demonstrated having been shown from a colt without having met with a single defeat. He has met and defeated some of the best horses in Kentucky. Before booking your mares read his breeding carefully and take a look at him and I feel confident you will be convinced that he is in every way worthy of your careful consideration.

Fee $25 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled, mare parted with or removed from neighborhood.

Thanking you for past favors, I am
Yours Very Respt.,
A. S. Chewing.

Mr. Charles Herriford, whose misfortune was reported in last week's News, died at his home, in Herriford Bottom, Russell county, last Wednesday night. It will be remembered that he was rafting and that he got one of his feet cut so badly that amputation was necessary. His death was the result of the accident. He was about fifty-five years old.

Horse and Jack for Sale.

I have a good horse and Jack for sale. The horse is three years old and is broke to harness. Is well bred. The Jack is black, one of the best breeders in the county. Will sell at a bargain.

Milltown, Ky.

Mr. Jo H. Barger, one of the best citizens of Russell county, has sold his landed estate, near Esto, and will remove to Adair county this week. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Barger will live with their son-in-law, Mr. M. O. Stevenson. As soon as Mr. Barger can find a farm for sale that will suit him, he expects to make a purchase. He and his estimable wife will be valuable acquisitions to any community.

We have a thoroughbred Jersey male, entitled to register, which we will stand at our farm. One dollar at the gate.

Special Notice.

Having sold an interest in my store to Mr. W. H. Gill I want to thank those who have patronized me and trust to still merit their patronage. We expect to keep what the people want in the way of groceries and will guarantee satisfaction in every way. I want to say in this connection that if you owe me an account you will please call and settle. I don't want to cause you any extra trouble and expense and you can avoid it by paying at once. This is final and you need not wait for any further notice from me. The next notice might cost you something. Please don't allow this.

Very Respectfully,
GEO. E. WILSON.

Notice.

Don't fail to take a look at the famous Duke of Adair, V. M. Epperson's fine Combined Saddle and Harness Stallion on the square in Columbia, Monday, April 7, county court day. Notice his eyes, size, style and finish. If you want something either to sell or keep, it will pay you to breed to Duke of Adair.

Miss Louise Davis, daughter of Rev. Pat Davis, and Mr. Andrew Moore, son of County Attorney C. R. Moore, of Simpson county, eloped from Franklin, Ky., last Thursday and were married at Nashville. There were no objections to the union, the young couple wanting a trip. The bride is a niece of Mr. Fayette Davis, this county, and also of Judge N. H. Moss.

Notice.

All persons indebted to me are requested to come and settle as soon as possible. The condition of my health requires that I close up my business.

Death of Mrs. Daisy Judd.

Last Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock Mrs. Daisy Judd, who was the wife of Robert Judd, died, after a long illness, at her late home, Cane Valley. She was about 24 years old, and a daughter of Mrs. Harriet Cundiff, and was born and reared in the community where she died. The funeral services were held Wednesday forenoon, and the interment was in the Cane Valley cemetery. A large circle of relatives and friends attended the last sad rites. Besides her husband, she leaves one child, her mother and several brothers.

The surviving members of her family have the sympathy of the entire Cane Valley country. May God comfort those who mourn, and may the little one, who will not have the care of a loving mother, be reared in the fear and admonition of the Lord; and after a while it will understand why the dear mother was taken.

Miss Eva Lay, who has been employed in this office two years, tendered her resignation last week. Her stay in the office was exceedingly pleasant, as she was perfectly agreeable, a good compositor and a good make up. In whatever calling she may engage in she will have the best wishes of the entire News force.

I have a Jersey cow with young calf for sale.

H. Young and wife, Columbia, G. C. Grissom, wife and children, Columbia, J. B. Russell and wife, Columbia, J. J. Simpson and wife, Columbia, J. B. Coffey and wife, Columbia, A. Hunn and family, Columbia, Larue Montgomery and wife, Columbia, L. T. Neat and wife, Columbia, Mrs. Nolan Montgomery, Columbia, Mrs. James Goff, Columbia, Miss Ada Sublett, Green county.

To the Voters of Adair County.

Fellow Citizens:—

I am a candidate for County Judge of Adair county, subject to the action of the Democratic voters in August primary. If the voters think that I am qualified and would make them an efficient officer if elected, I would be grateful and thank them for their votes.

I promise if elected a faithful discharge of the duties of the office and to use every effort in the interest of the people. I would exert all my influence to economize and promote the interest of the tax payers. And therefore I am opposed to the issue of bonds for any purpose, and I am also opposed to the consolidation of schools because it would cost the county a vast sum to build houses and furnish transportation for the pupils to and from school. I know that the county judge hasn't much voice in school affairs, but probably some of the voters would like to know how a candidate stands on these questions.

A Judge should be impartial and do justice to all the people—the poor as well as the rich. In politics I have always voted the Democratic ticket, and I might say my Democracy was inherited from my ancestors. But if elected, I would mete out justice to the best of my ability to all, irrespective of party affiliations.

Plenty of mumps in our midst at this time.

J. R. Tutt, of Milltown, was here on business last Friday.

Mr. G. B. Yates, of Ozark, was in our community one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rodgers, of Pickett visited the family of Mr. B. B. Dulin last Sunday.

Mrs. Walter McCandless and son, of Columbia, visited relatives here a few days of last week.

Quite a number of our people attended the singing last Sunday afternoon conducted by Prof. J. V. Dudley.

Mr. J. R. Yates received a telegram from his brother, Thomas, of Mo., announcing his serious illness. Mr. Yates started immediately.

Remember there will be preaching at Union the first Sunday in April, by the pastor, Rev. J. N. Crawford. Everybody invited to attend.

Mr. Nat Walker, one of our prosperous farmers who has been confined in Columbia, with rheumatism for the past week or so, has recovered and is able to be on his farm again.

Mrs. Blakey Dulin, for several weeks during the winter, was thought by every one who visited her, that she could not possibly live but a few days. We are glad to note that she has been improving for the past month, and it looks very much at this time that she will be up again in a short time.

Mr. W. L. Grady, the well-known stockman of our town, sold a young Jack to some parties in Russell county for $500, and also a pair of two-year-old mules, to stockmen of Hart county for $440. These prices ought to convince any one what extra fine stock will do.

Mr. Charles Sparks, the well-known mail contractor of our town, has recently purchased him a farm almost adjacent to his house and lot. This rounds Mr. Sparks up with a nice, comfortable home. His purchase of land was from Geo. E. Nell, and he paid $1,350. Well worth the money.

The high wind and heavy rains of last week gave our people a little scare, however no serious damage was done, our creek was past fording for a day or so and our mail failed to reach us, telephone wires all together and our communication was very limited. A few of our people living near the creek left for higher quarters.

Mr. Zed Akin, one of Sparksville's most prosperous farmers, was in our midst a few days ago wearing a handsome suit of home made gray mixed janes. It is so seldom we see any of that kind of wearing apparel, we were compelled to compliment it. Mr. Akin is very proud of the suit because his mother made it for him fifteen years ago.

One of the best telephone operators in the county any where, and takes the greatest pleasure in accommodating the public is no less than our friend, Uncle George Akin, of Sparksville community, who was in our midst last Saturday looking hale and hearty, and looking after the lines that come into our town that he was directly interested in.
